

WOMEN ON FIRE

How to Prepare & Protect Your Family & Home In The Event Of A Bushfire

This workshop is tailored to meet the needs of rural women to prepare their families and homes in the event of a bushfire.

AIMS OF THE SESSION

- Empower women to make timely decisions in a crisis situation.
- Encourage women to maintain their homes and house yards in an ongoing state of bushfire preparedness.
- Discuss strategies for bushfire preparedness implementation.
- For each participant to produce their own Bush Fire Survival Plan.
- Learn from each other's experiences and catch up with other rural women in your area.

When 9.30 –11.30am Friday
11th December 2015

Where: Darlow RFS Shed,
Ellerslie Woolshed rd

RSVP: ph (02) 6941 1402
cherie.white@lls.nsw.gov.au

Many thanks to Skye Bellamy and Maria Turner of Junee Area Landcare Network for developing the workshop.